What the Macarthur Diversity Service Initiative does:-

Our Mission Macarthur Diversity Services Initiative provides practical assistance and services for relief of poverty, distress and misfortune to disadvantaged and marginalised people in the Macarthur region, especially to refugees and those from a culturally and linguistically diverse background.

Manifesto “MDSI believes in a world where people matter, communities are connected and everyone is accepted. We believe this is possible through education and participation of community members using our diverse cultural expertise. We ensure we have professional and multi-skilled staff, volunteers and board members who deliver the highest service quality in empowering and creative ways. We do this with respect, trust, open communication, collaboration and courage. We say no to projects and partnerships that do not follow these values. We hold ourselves accountable to these values so MDSI and our community members can thrive.”

MDSI is a registered, not-for-profit charity that offers practical help and support services to the disadvantaged and marginalised. Equal Employment Opportunity

MDSI is an Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Employer or fair employment practice. As such we are committed to these principles and to ensuring that our recruitment policy and selection processes are fair and non-discriminatory. EEO ensures that MDSI human resource management activities are based on the merit principle as well as the recognition of the potential of all staff.

This means that there will be no discrimination in:

- | | |
|---|--------------------------|
| (a) The way the job is advertised | (b) Interviewing process |
| (c) access to training and development | (d) recruitment on merit |
| (e) a working environment free of harassment and discrimination | |

Responsibility for monitoring the policy lies with the Board of Management in conjunction with the Chief Executive Officer. The law recognises that certain positions are best fulfilled or can only be fulfilled by a person of a particular background, race, sex or age. The requirement for a person to be of a particular background, race, age, sex is called a Genuine Occupational Qualification (GOQ). Under this, it is possible to claim GOQ for jobs providing a service targeted to people of a particular background, race, age or sex. This job must involve direct contact with consumers and the Centre must be able to justify why such a person is required.

For example:-

- An Arabic Project Worker to improve access to the legal system for members of the Arabic speaking community (Race is considered to be a GOQ)
- NESB community worker working with newly arrived migrants from NESB (Race is not considered to be a GOQ)

Such exemptions do not need to be applied for from the ADB to advertise where background, race, sex, or age is a GOQ, they are exempted under Section 14 race, Section 21 sex, Section 49 age, of the Anti-Discrimination Act.

All employees have a role in the implementation of Equal Employment Opportunity Principles. They are required to be familiar with the EEO requirements of their own position/s and are to ensure fair treatment of other colleagues. Diversity at all levels of the workforce increases the responsiveness of decision makers to the needs of the larger society, particularly those of racial or ethnic minority groups, women and people with a disability.

Guide for Job Applicants

We offer jobs to people on the basis of merit. The applicant considered to be the most capable of doing the job is selected. To decide this, we will look at your qualifications, experience, skills, standard of work and any personal qualities relevant to the advertised position. Choosing the best person for the job is part of our policy of equal employment opportunity.

The advertisement gives the name of a contact person, they will be able to provide you information about the job. The advertisement also gives the selection criteria that you are to address. The interview panel cannot overlook any of the selection criteria, so if you do not address these, by explaining how you meet each of the criterion, your application is unlikely to be further considered.

Writing your application

- First you should fill in the MDSI Job Application including the Prohibited Employment Declaration and the Employment Screening Consent.
- Write a statement about how you meet the Selection Criteria for the position. Page 9 of the MDSI Job Application gives you a brief guide on how to address selection criteria.
- Include an up to date Resume. You should also tell us what type of work, including voluntary or unpaid work, you have done in the past, what organisations you have worked for, the period you were employed, the kind of work you did, your skills and what your responsibilities were.
- If Qualifications are a requirement of the position (see advertisement), please submit photocopies of your academic transcript/qualification. These photocopies should be signed by a Justice of the Peace. If your qualifications are from overseas, you should include any English translations, or statements of Australian equivalence, or recognition, and any relevant academic transcripts.
NOTE – By submitting this Job Application, you are giving MDSI permission to verify with your training provider that your stated 'academic qualifications' are valid.
- Provide the names and phone numbers of Two Referees (at least one referee should be a recent supervisor/manager). Also tell us how you know each of your referees, for example, is the referee your current supervisor/manager or a co-worker, past manager etc.? Your referees should know about the type of job you are applying for, as they may be contacted by our interview panel to verify information that you may have provided about your work history.

Sending your Application

You should make sure that you send your application with plenty of time, so that it reaches us by the advertised closing date, as late applications will not be accepted.

Attending an Interview

If you are selected for an interview, you will be contacted to advise you when, and where the interview will be held. Generally, you will be told at least 3 working days beforehand. You may be asked to bring a portfolio or samples of your previous work. You may also be asked to undergo a test to demonstrate any particular skills that may be required for the job.

Addressing the Selection Criteria

To help us to assess your claim for the advertised position, please take some time to explain how your experience, skills, knowledge and personal qualities address the criteria of the position. Use examples, and include formal qualifications and industry experiences.

The best way to set out your claim for the position is to list every SELECTION criterion as a heading. Then, under each heading clearly explain how you meet that criterion. You can write a few paragraphs on each criterion, or write in point form. Please do not assume that we know you can do something, you need to tell us.

You also need to describe what you can do and how you do it. This could be in a past job or in your current job. The important thing is for you to try and gain an interview. The best way for this to occur, is for you to demonstrate your skills and experience to us in your job application. You should address all of the selection criteria, otherwise your application may not be considered.

The following are examples of how you may address SELECTION criterion.

SELECTION CRITERIA (Example only)

Excellent written and oral communication skills

It is not sufficient just to state I have excellent communication skills. Describe the experience you have, or the things you do in your current job which show your communication skills. For example, you may wish to demonstrate your skills by describing the kinds of letters, reports or documents you have written, or whether you have spent a lot of time dealing face to face, or on the phone, with the general public, clients or other government departments.

Current Driver's Licence

If a selection criterion states that you have to have a current driver's licence, tell us that you have a driver's licence, the type of licence it is, and, for how long you have held it.

Remember you also need to address the common selection criteria as well.

It is important you are able to show an understanding of the common selection criteria as you may be asked to demonstrate your understanding at the interview.

If it is a supervisory/managerial position you are applying for, you may be asked to demonstrate your capacity to implement Equal Employment Opportunities (EEO), Workplace Health and Safety (WHS), Industrial Relations, Code of Behaviour etc. For example, you could tell us how you implemented EEO principals when you were involved in recruiting employees / coordinating training, or supervising/managing teams.

You may have undertaken a workplace safety assessment, or written some WHS guidelines or policies. You may have trained other employees in WHS awareness, or have been a WHS committee member etc.

Job Application Form

Equality of Employment Opportunity and appointment on merit is MDSI policy. Please read this application carefully and ensure that you complete all of the sections.
