On The Basis of Sex.

A day for women

CAMDEN residents are invited to attend a screening of On the Basis of Sex.

It will be screened tomorrow at 6.45pm (Wednesday) at United Cinemas, Narellan, as part of Camden Council's International Women's Day celebrations.

Camden's 2019 Australia Day Arts and Culture Award winner Sana Al-Ahmar said she was inspired by her 90 year old mother who continued to fight for women's rights in Iraq. "This day reminds us who we are, how far we've come and where we are going," she said.
