

HIPPY graduates

MACARTHUR Diversity Services Initiative is celebrating a milestone event on Thursday with its first graduation for young children from Claymore who have completed the Home Interaction for Parents and Youngsters (HIPPY) program. The program is an early education and enrichment program that prepares children aged 3-4 for school while also acknowledging the role parents play. It is a 60-week program that runs during school terms.