

Susan Wilson is delighted with the textile calendar featuring work from the inaugural Macarthur Textile Expo.

Picture: ROBERT POZO

Expo calendar features artists' work

VERA BERTOLA

MACARTHUR Textile Network members are hopeful a calendar of stunning photos of entries in the inaugural Macarthur Textile Expo will go towards funding a second event.

The calendar, featuring a theme of bright, bold and beautiful, went on sale recently for the competitive price of $10.

Network spokeswoman Susan Wilson said the photos selected for the calendar showcased the incredible talent of artists.

"They are absolutely lovely," she enthused. "It's a unique way to capture the works.

"The sale of the calendar will raise money so we can afford to hold another expo.

"It's already been set for May 27 and 28 at Camden Civic Centre."

The inaugural textile expo attracted about 80 entries and 400 visitors.

It was organised with the support of Camden Council and Harmony Day funding from the Immigration and Citizenship Department.

Macarthur Diversity Services Initiative created the calendar, again with financial assistance from the department.

Ms Wilson encouraged people to support the sale of the calendar.

Calendars can be ordered and bought through Ms Wilson on 4655 8234 or Susan Hutchinson on 4658 0930.