

The spirit reigned

Rain could not dampen the spirits of a large crowd gathered for the Campbelltown City Christmas Carols on Saturday. Campbelltown Arts Centre's packed amphitheatre heard carols sung by Odyssey House choir, Sweet Tonic, and Ingleburn Public School students. Dorothy the Dinosaur also made an appearance on the night. Campbelltown City Christmas Carols was hosted by Campbelltown Council, in association with the Rotary Clubs of Campbelltown and Macarthur Sunrise.

Such fantastic family fun

COME along and have yourself a Christmas ball at Koshigaya Park tomorrow week (Thursday, December 16) at Carols in the Park.

Presented by Macarthur Diversity Services Initiative (MDSI), Carols In The Park will feature some of Macarthur's finest entertainers, including Claudia Hackney, Coby Midson, Blake Giles, Bronte De Sousa and Paul Adams.

Lorena Munoz of MDSI says it will be a fantastic family event.

"Bring a rug, drinks and nibbles or even a picnic dinner and join in with the activities and wonderful Christmas sing-a-long with some of our guests," Mrs Munoz said.

"Our special guest will be Santa himself.

"There will be a jumping castle and face painting for the little ones, song books for the audience and Santa with something for the children."

Food, drink and glow sticks will be available for purchase.

Details: Thursday, December 16, 6pm to 9pm.
